

Fabrizio Sala was born in Milan on 13 June 1971. He earned his Accounting Diploma in 1991. From 1991 to 1995, he worked in a number of administrative and sales positions in the furniture industry. After a brief period as an insurance agent, in 1997 he started working as a Financial Advisor to retail and private clients, managing a team of sales agents and training sales agents in the Lombardy region. From 2008 until the end of 2012, he was Head of External Relations in the Contract division of a well-known furniture industry company, and then Contract Strategy Manager at another major manufacturing group. In 1999, he was elected Mayor of the Municipality of Misinto (Monza and Brianza), a post he held until 2009, when he was appointed Councillor for the Environment at the Monza and Brianza Provincial Administration, of which he subsequently became Vice President. In 2013 he became a Regional Councillor and was appointed Undersecretary for Expo 2015 and the Internationalization of Enterprises. In December 2014, he became Minister for Housing, Social Housing, Expo 2015 and the Internationalization of Enterprises. In October 2015 he became Vice President of the Lombardy Region and also in charge for the International relations. He is also a member of the Academic Council of the LUdeS University of Lugano (Switzerland), a board member of the Network of European Regions Using Space Technologies (NEREUS) and President of the European Chemical Regions Network (ECRN).
